

Get support

Who can I ask for help?

University students are 'independent learners'. However, being independent does not mean being left on your own. You will have support from your tutors, your lecturers and from a whole host of support staff and services.

Firstpoint, based in the Peirson Study and Guidance Centre on the St John's Campus, is the first point of call for all student enquiries.

The following are some of the many people and services at The University of Worcester who can offer advice and support, helping you to make informed decisions:

- 1 Academic tutors
- 1 Student Services
- 1 Students' Union
- 1 Library Services
- 1 Student Academic Representatives
- 1 Accommodation Office
- 1 International Office
- 1 The Language Centre

Taking part

The University has a reputation for supporting talented athletes. Both students and staff from Worcester played for the England Blind Football team in the Beijing Paralympics and made it through to the semi finals of this year's Blind Football World Cup.
